Dear Friends of the Accordion,

At our December 9th Christmas party, delectable entrees, sidedishes, and desserts were sampled by all. In addition to great food, nine brave souls ventured forth with Christmas songs. Those nine souls consisted of Bruce, Dave, Jay, Eileen, Yvonne, Bart and Dave from Tremonton, Rob, and Paul. It is always a special treat to hear our members play for the club; a constant reminder of our camaraderie. In addition, treats always aid in the longevity of friendships.

Come January 6, 2014, we will experience the sounds of Steve Keen and Mark Chaney. Mark is a jazz singer and percussionist who has teamed up with Steve to give the club a "Mel Torme" pick-me-up. You will recall Steve Keen from numerous performances in the past. Also, he is a professor of jazz piano at the University of Utah and gives private accordion lessons, as well. Steve has asked if anyone has an Ella Fitzgerald, Adelle, John Coltrane, Oscar Peterson, Minnie Pearl, or Jimmy Durante impersonation. He has offered to gladly accompany you in a rendition of your choice. A specific request was made to refrain from Miles Davis impersonations because Miles "bling" results in excessive light reflection thereby blinding accompanying musicians. Also, the "bang of bling" causes miscues and inaccurate sound sensations resulting in many cacophonous blends. If you "drool over cool", may I suggest you attend the John Swallow hearings, now playing in a rotunda near you.

Lastly, I remind all our members annual dues are being collected by Pat Whall and Jean Sagers. They have reminded me that their Courtly Thugs and Ballet Battalions are out in full force searching for the elusive dues dodgers. Lest I be remiss in my duty as an elected office holder, remember:

Basic Membership	$25.00 per family household
Supporting Member	$50.00 per family household
Sustaining Member	$100.00 per family household
Founding Member	$250.00 per family household

Wait, who's that banging at my door!!! Oh no, ohhhhhhhhhhh aghhhhhh. I forgot my dues!

We look forward to comparing New Year's resolutions, and cheering the percentage who are still abiding by said resolutions, on January 6, 2014, at Kowloon Café 2000 West 3500 South in West Valley City at 6:30pm.

"Keep Squeezin"
