Dear Friends of the Accordion,

For the May club meeting, we experienced the sounds of Yvonne Mueller, her student McKay Bryson, Molly Creel, and surprise visitor Tom Squirek who played pieces from Bach and Handel on his free-bass chromatic accordion. Yvonne and Bryson played several duets, followed by solos from each of them. As a duet team and soloists, Yvonne and Bryson played energizing and emotionally laden pieces that captivated the audience. Molly played two pieces she had been working on during her accordion lessons. Molly showed incredible courage in her debut performance. She demonstrated remarkable confidence and a flawless appearance—well done, Molly.

There will be no meeting at Kowloon Café for June. Instead, at the invitation of Accordions International, our June meeting will be June 7th, 7:30 PM at Fort Douglas. Paul Pasquali has invited us to listen to the finale of Camp Concerto at the Commander's House at Fort Douglas on the University of Utah campus. The performance will include soloists, including camp participants and guest artist Gordon Kohl, plus a stunning all Concerto orchestra featuring camp participants.

There will be a July 2nd accordion club meeting at Kowloon Café. Our own Paul Pasquali will perform a number of pieces on his Concerto. Paul is famous for performing music from several genres from Broadway to Classics.

Don't miss the incredible Las Vegas International Accordion Convention. Great fun, wonderful classes, good food and incredible music await you in Las Vegas. For club members only the Early Bird deadline on the enclosed flyer is extended to June 15, 2012.

As a reminder, Mario Pedone from Sugar Land, Texas, will play for our community on August 11, 2012. Please mark your calendars; tickets will be available soon. We will see you at the Commander's House at Fort Douglas on the University of Utah campus.

Keep Squeezin'

Dave Marasco
