Dear WAC Members and Friends,

As one member recently said to me, “I don’t ever want to miss Accordion Club!!!”

Last night was no exception. To say that “a good time was had by all”, is very likely an understatement. From thoroughly enjoyable music and stories and jokes, to happy socks on both feet and head, to a whole room full of delightful camaraderie, I daresay that we ALL went home smiling for quite some time after this most entertaining evening!

A BIG THANK YOU goes to THE ACCORDS!!! Their stage presence is enviable; no matter what else is going on, they appear calm, comfortable and unflappable. Special ‘Kudos’ to Joan and Glenna! Their music is as delightful as they are charming, which somehow makes for a rather enchanted evening for the rest of us. They played a wide repertoire of favorites. To name a few---from Alley Cat to Pennsylvania Polka, to Sunrise Sunset, and then finishing up with Zillertaller and Blue Moon ---there was definitely something for everyone. [WE even got quizzed as an audience, as they played TV theme songs from the ‘50’s. Yes, our age is showing.] Later on they played snippets of other songs to see what else we knew; we even stumped ‘Siri’ on one of those pieces! As they began playing Those Were the Days, it was fun to watch their eye contact as they built the suspense, and then ‘let it rip’ with a nod! I always learn a lot from watching this group perform. Once upon a time they were a quartet; now they are a duo. Either way, they have always put on a good show! Thank you again, Accords!

In case Happy Socks were ‘out of control’ last time, they were ‘over the top’ at this merry-month-of-May meeting. Sandy was first up to show off her classy purple Argyle socks {with black-purple toes of course}, not to be outdone by Bruce’s hamburger socks {totally outrageous}, followed by Kent’s neon-bright—too bright to even look at socks--- {Ohhh---my eyes!!!}. Not to be outdone were Dave’s very sedate, olive green/red/black plaid socks. Wait a minute...since when does Dave ever do sedate? THEN he took off his cap...and there...hanging out like very long ears, were his George Washington socks. Last but not least, were Kendrick’s grand-finale socks; we aren’t even going to attempt to describe THOSE socks. You’ll just have to come to our June meeting to see them...and hope that he will wear them one more time.

At our JUNE 4th meeting, we will be featuring JOHN TIBOLLA. John has always been one of our long-time favorite performers. His relaxed way of playing many of our favorite standards, plus his stories and affable personality, will for sure make our June event an evening to remember.

Happy Spring, which is quickly warming up to Summer! Take care, and we’ll see you SOON, at Kowloon. AND A BIG Welcome to our new members Autumn & Phil Lifsey!

Chirpingly yours,

Jenny Robinson
