Dear Friends of the Accordion,

Should you not be able to recall last month's flier, I shall give you a clue: six members responded with enthusiasm extraordinaire. Open mic night waxed joyously with the sounds of eight of our members. Eileen Benevidez & Yvonne Mueller opened the evening's program with several wonderful duets. Next the Leland Flinders, Pat Whall, & Dave Marasco trio treated us to three pieces. It's obvious they enjoy playing together. After the trio, Bart Chadaz from Tremonton, Utah entertained us with his wonderful accordion and vocal stylings. Then local professional, Kevin Christensen, performed and sang to an enthusiastic audience. Yvonne followed up with an enjoyable closing set. All pieces were performed with class and style and we appreciate our member's willingness to share their talents!

In fact, the past two open mic nights seemed to be greatly appreciated by performers and audience alike. The club will, once again, sponsor another open mic night on July 1st. With sufficient time to prepare a couple of pieces each, we should be able to compete with Major Bows, Horace Heidt, Ted Mack, Eugene Jelesnic, and Simon Cowell. (In a fog? Ask me the next time you see me.)

The Accords from Utah County have agreed to perform for our May meeting. We would ask that you be in your seats by 6:30 as one of the Accords will need to leave early. We always look forward to the Accords' performances. They are both entertaining and accomplished musicians and you won't want to miss their program.

Our next club meeting will be held at Kowloon Café at 6:30pm on May 6th. It's always a great time at our "family reunions". We look forward to seeing you at Club.

"Keep Squeezin"

Dave Marasco
