Dear WAC Members and Friends,

Hope that this letter finds you well and enjoying life! It's springtime – it's raining – and the old man is snoring! Well no one was snoring at our April meeting! What a great treat to hear such wonderful music. Unfortunately our club President Jenny was not feeling well and had to miss our April meeting – but she is better and will be back as our illustrious leader on May 2!

First to the stage was Bruce Hunsaker who played a free bass selection and followed up with a great rendition of Repasz Band followed by the beautiful Air on a G String by Bach. Thanks Bruce for sharing with us – you are an inspiration to all our members who is returning to the accordion.

A BIG THANK-YOU to Steve and Yvonne for a fantastic evening of music. Together they played so tightly they sounded as one. We heard great songs from all over Europe and the USA including Star Wars! It was a night not to be forgotten! This was a great evening to showcase why our club is in existence – to promote the accordion and give a stage for talented artists to play to an appreciative crowd! Thanks again Steve and Yvonne – job well done – hope you both will come back and entertain together as a duet again in the near future!

We are excited to have Brad Nelson join us for our May 2 meeting and Brad has asked his band Pagan Love Gods to join him on a few numbers as well. Brad is a very accomplished musician, composer and accordionist. Brad and Pagan Love Gods can be heard regularly at Piper Down – an Irish Pub located on State Street. We are excited to hear what Brad has in store for us and a little bird has said Accordion Boogie will be a featured number!

We're in for another unforgettable evening, so come May 2 be at Kowloon Café where the Wasatch Accordion Club again meets with great camaraderie, friendship and music! We look forward to seeing you.

We will be publishing a free member phone roster and be including it with our next month's newsletter. If for any reason you do not want your name included please let us know within the next two weeks.

Last – be sure to mark May 19th on your calendar. All WAC members are invited to Camp Concerto Concert Night. Details will follow next month.

Warmly,

Paul & Pat
